Arrival of the Arabia.

The steamship Arabia, with Liverport dates to June 3rd, arrived at New York on Tuesday evening, making a very quick trip. Full details of the news will be found under the telegraphic head. Breadstuffs have again improved, the market clasing firm, with good demand. Consols have advanced, the money remains tight. Matters in Europe are growing more complicated. Greece on the South, and Denmark on the North, are lending "aid and comfort" to Russia. Anstria begins to move in carnest against the Czar. Silistria, gallantly defended by the Turks, still resists the Russian forces, and Omer Pacha, after a conference with the English and French Generals, has despatched 90,000 men to the relief of the beleaguered fortress. This will doubtless bring on a great battle, as the Russians will not abandon the attack upon Silistria, except upon Native and Fereign Organizations.

The News copies a paragraph from the Sentinel of Tuesday, warning our German and frish tellow-citizens against the insidious appeals of interested and unscrupulous demagogues, and ur ging them to think, act, and vote independently and as American citizens, not band together as a foreign clan and thus provoke the native born to organize in opposition, and makes it the subject o the following comment:

That is if the Germans and Irish do not vo That is if the Germans and Irish do not vote and not against the whige Know Nothing organization, it will be all right; but we auspect, notwithstanding the implied threat in the last paragraph of the Sentinel, that they will be apit up themselves on their guard against the progress of Native Americanism by withdrawing from the whig party.

There was no "threat," express or implied, in the article to which the News refers. It was a plain statement of an underlable fact. If Irishmen and Germans, listening to such mischievous connects as those of the News, band together at our elections, Americans will do the same. Every good citizen must deplore such a result; but if the advice and appeals of the Newsand the Nebraska prints generally are heeded, it is inevitable. We have always opposed these clannish organizations, whether originating with native, or adopted cifizens. But the one provokes and to a certain extent justifies the other, and those reckless party hacks, which are now, as heretofore, using every means to array our fellow-citizens of foreign birth under the black banner of Slaveryextending "Democracy," are directly and chiefly responsible for "the progress of Nativo Americaniem," and the spread and success of the "Know Nothing" organization. If our adopted fellowcitizens reject the wicked counsels of these party tricksters; resist all attempts, come from what quarter they may, to array them in mass under the flag of any party, and exercise, firmly, fearlessly, and independently, their rights as American citizens, there will be no aliment to feed a "Know-Nothing" party and it will speedily die of inani

Diocesan Convention.

The Annual Convention of the Protestant Epizcopal Church for the Diocese of Wisconsin, assembled at St. Paul's Church in this city, yesterday morolog. The attendance was very large, and much interest manifested in the proceedings. An elequent and very appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. ABBELT, from II. Corinthians, Chap. iv: 1 and 2; and the Holy Communion administered by the Bishop. After the religious exercises, the Convention was duly orgnaized for business, Bishop KEMPER presiding; the Rev. Dr. PARK being chosen Secretary, and selecting Dr. Cose for his assistant.

The Bishop delivered his annual address, a very interesting document, exhibiting a large amount of labor successfully accomplished during the past year. On motion, the Convention then proceeded to the election of a Diocesan. After brief time spent in silent prayer, the voter were given in, when it appeared that the Right Reverend JACKSON KEMPER, D. D. had received the unanimous nomination of the Clergy, 21 in number, which was confirmed by the unanimous vote of the Laity, representing 14 Parishes. The Convention next proceeded to the usual de tails of business, which occupied it during the temainder of the afternoon. The following were chosen Standing Committee of the Diocese for the ensuing year : Rev. Dr. Aunert, Rev. Messrs. Nichols, Keene and Ingranam, and Messrs. HAWLEY, MoVICKES, ARNOLD and SKLEY. The next Convention is to be held at Mineral Point.

It is a great wonder that the brilliant diplomatists did not provide a special clause by which the U.S. Treasury should pay a bounty or Canadian lumber and wheat imported into Wis-

STATE PRISON AT WAUPUN .- We learn from Sheriff Page, who has just returned from Waupun, that there are sixty-six prisoners confined in the State prison; sixty males, and six females.— They are progressing rapidly with the new wing the prison, and expect to have it completed by the first of January next. The law passed last winter, allowing prisoners payment for extra work performed by them, is working well. Many of them are earning for themselves or families from thirty to forty dollars per month, besides performing their alloted tasks for the State. The Sheriff speaks in the highest terms of the excellent management and discipling of the prisoo, under its present efficient officers.

The law alluded to above is founded in humanity, for under the former, if the convict was a laoring man, without means, and bad a family, it when violated and conviction followed, sent the father and husband to prison and virtually his wife and children to the poor house. What, under such a law, was the inducement for a prison-et to labor? or what was the inducement to reform? Now the parent who has been so unfortunate as to commit crime, and to merit punish ment, has still a chance to support his family; to defray the expenses of his confinement, and is taught by the State that labor, when steadily followed, is rewarded. The State now assumes the duties of the parent; it shows him, demonstrates to him, that it is easy to live and labor especiably, and it punishes him at the same time We repeat, it is founded in humanity, and harmo-

People's Mass State Convention, We publish to-day the call for a Mass State

Convention to be held at this place on the 13th day of July next—the anniversary of the passage of the ordinance of 1787, which declared that day of July next—the anniversary of the passage of the ordinance of 1787, which declared that slavery and involuntary servitude should never exist in these North-Western States. Similar conventions are to be held in Ohio and Michigan and we hope in other States. One solomo compact, one obligation, binding as plighted faith and honor, as the respectful regard of years, as the association of departed patriotanni sages in its formation, could render it, has been ruthlessly repealed without giving the people of the Union time to declare their sentiments upon the measure. This has been done by a union of all the southern slaveholders in Congress, with a few exceptions, and of northern men who have betrayed their constituents. An act ropealing the clause in the ordinance of '57 respecting Slavory, and declaring that the slaveholder may bring his bondsmen with him to the North, and crack his whip in the ears of the Freetnen of Wisconsin, would not be more unexpected, more infamous, and outrageous. The time has arrived when we must stand up like men for freedom and our rights; or duck and cringo like the merenary poltrons whom executive patronage and southern promises have cajoled into voting for the repeal

Let us look at the condition of political parties Let us look at the condition of political parties at present. What are the mighty issues upon which they differ? Let us throw by our prejudices for a moment. Does anything divide them so momentous as the question of extending slavery, perpetuating it, making freedom sectional, and giving the slave propaganda a crushing prelominance in the Union? On Banking there is no difference in parties. On the subject of River and Parbor Improvements and the Tariff there may be some difference, but men of any party can advocate or oppose these measures without casting a shadow upon their political orthodoxy.—And what are these, even if parties were widely sundered in their views upon them, but trifling. and what are these, even in parties were where we sandered in their views upon them, but trifling, contemptible issues compared with that of making a slave market and a land of hereditary bondsmen of all that wide domain comprised in the territory of Kansas and Nebraska, and of all future territory that we may hereafter acquire?—

Affairs in Washington.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

[FROM OUR DOWN CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, June 7.

Congress continues to be without a quorum, but as men can talk on dead issues as well to empty benches as to a live and attentive audience, the House to day went into Committee of the Whole, which proceeded to the consideration of the Pacific Railtond, the Elections, "Know Kothing"-ism, Cubu and Spain. Mr. Chandler had the floor, and delivered an able speech on these topics. I sprak of the first as a deed issue, because, although the subject is of the first importance, it will receive no further attention in Congress, with a view to practical action upon it, and has already been abandoned by its most distinguished advocate, Col. Beaton.

The "Democratic," otherwise Lecofece majority in the House, have some motive in relusing to attend and sirry members out of the two hundred and sirry members out of the two hundred and sirry members out of the two hundred and the present unexampled state of things rests with them. A large proportion of the members who daily answer to their names, are Whigs, yet that porty has but little over a fourth of the House. The expenses of Congress are nearly five thousand dollars a day. The Locofece majority is deliberately robbing the Treasury of that amount.

The President's supplemental Message on our Spanish relations will, probably, be sent to the House on Monday next. But what is the use of "thundering in the index" in this way? People that are really going to fight, do not make such terribly long palarers. The long and the short of the stery is simply this: Spain is the proprietor of a very valuable Island within a stone's throw of our coast, and four thousand nikes from her own, which we want. We must have it. If she will talk it. This ought not to be so, but it is human nature. Everybrdy lass a natural hankering for the lands that add in his own. Mr. Peck was pretty badly hurt in the hip.

While the keepers were engaged in securing the smaller elephant, who had not, however, manifested any signs of insubordination, the larger one got out from them, and went on through Barnoyville, when Mr. Mason Barney and another man mounted their horses and kept on his track as near to him as was prudent, giving warning of the danger to the passengers whom they met a more rates and National Administrations. The best evidence that can be adduced in favor o the effectionness of Hoofiand's German Billers, prepared by Dr. C. M.
